About Us

Welcome to Archimedes – the innovative stock analysis platform designed to simplify investing. Archimedes was founded with a vision to provide clear, powerful insights that empower investors to make informed decisions without the complexity of traditional investment platforms.

Our Mission

At Archimedes, we believe in transparency, accessibility, and empowerment. Our mission is to demystify the world of stock analysis by offering straightforward tools and reliable information, enabling both beginners and seasoned investors to enhance their investment strategies.

What We Offer

Archimedes is not just another stock analysis tool. We provide:

- Revolutionary Stock Ratings: Each stock on the NYSE and NASDAQ is scored from 1-10 based on our unique rating metrics in growth, value, and performance, calculated through formulas we've developed exclusively for Archimedes.
- Customized Watchlists: Personalize your experience by building a watchlist to monitor stocks that matter to you.
- Financial News and Insights: Stay updated on the latest market developments with relevant news articles directly within the app.
- Secure and Private Platform: Your privacy and security are our top priorities. We do not track your activity, collect data, or run ads. All payment transactions are processed through Stripe, ensuring your financial information is always protected.

Our Story

Archimedes was created by a team of finance enthusiasts and technology experts who recognized the need for an intuitive, user-focused stock analysis platform. Built with precision, transparency, and a dedication to user empowerment, Archimedes represents our commitment to innovation in finance.

Why Archimedes?

Named after the legendary mathematician and inventor, Archimedes is built on the same principles of logic, insight, and discovery. We believe that understanding stocks should be as intuitive as solving a puzzle – and our platform is here to be your guide.

Thank you for joining us on this journey. We're excited to be a part of your investing story!
